

What have Year One at SPN been up to...

Year one have been busy preparing for the science fair. They have been investigating sound and have designed and made their own string telephones.

Year One have enjoyed science this term and look forward to more fair test investigations.

